The press of the state speaks in very high terms of Dr. G. G. Idstein as an oculist. The doctor is stopping at the Ocala House and will be here only for a few days. He does not pretend to be a "cure all" but does pretend to know about the eyes, and the eyes only and is confident that he can give those suffering with defective eyesight absolute and permanent relief.

This office had a pleasant call Friday from Mr. J. W. Coulter, of the Blitchton precinct. He says that the storm on Monday was the severest that has been known in his neighborhood for many years and that many fences and trees were blown down. Mr. Coulter will be kept posted on county matters during the next year by the Ocala Banner.

DAMAGE BY THE WIND.

Turpentine and Lumber People Biggest Sufferers.

The Jacksonville Record says that the very latest reports received from all over the turpentine belt indicate that fully 20 per cent of the virgin boxes were destroyed by the heavy wind and storms of the early week, and that fully 10 per cent of the old boxes were also destroyed. More or less timber was blown down in every section of the naval stores territory.

The following letter has been received from Mr. J. G. Cranford, at Live Oak, Fla.

"The storm last Monday did great damage. I have heard from Levy, Lafayette, Taylor, Columbia, Suwannee, Echols, Clinch and Ware counties, and the timber is badly blown down. I think from what I have heard from different people I have seen on the trains and elsewhere that the damage will offset at least the increase in boxes, unless reports be greatly exaggerated."

Messrs. Broward & Wilson, very extensive operators at Calabash, Fla., say the damage done to the turpentine belt in their section is much worse than at first feared.

Mr. D. R. Edwards, Lawty, Fla., reports considerable damage done to timber in his section by the storm.

Mr. S. M. Davis, a prominent operator from Juliette, Fla., says the storm last week did serious damage to the turpentine interests all over his section.

Mrs. A. M. Honey and daughters, Misses Aline and Mildred, of New York City, are visiting Mr. D. M. Boney in this city. They will remain here about a month and before returning will visit the principal winter resorts and may extend their trip to Cuba or Nassau.

Mr. D. E. Potter, of Willimantic, Conn., who owns a valuable orange grove near this city is making us his annual visit and is stopping at the Ocala House. He has been traveling for the past two weeks in different portions of the southern states and says that he found business enterprises active everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Culverhouse arrived in Ocala Sunday from Augusta, Ga. They will make their permanent home in this city. Mr. Culverhouse will have charge of the books for Mr. G. A. Carmichael. Mrs. Culverhouse was formerly Miss Mattie Culverhouse of this city and her friends here are glad to welcome her back.

Yonge Sage, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Sage, happened to what might have been a very serious accident Monday morning. He fell against the sharp corner of a sofa and cut a very bad gash in his forehead severing one of the veins. The wound was quickly dressed by Dr. D. M. Smith and the little fellow is now doing all right.

Mr. J. M. Mathews, of Flemington, an old time friend and subscriber, was among our pleasant callers Saturday. He came down to bring a wagon load of meat to put in cold storage. He says he never before saw as many fallen trees across the road and that he had to leave the road on account of them and encountered so many that he proceeded over a mile before he could get back to the road again. He says the storm did great damage to the turpentine and lumber interests.

Capt. John L. Ingliss is in the city. Capt. Ingliss has just had completed a very elegant residence in Jacksonville and will move his family from Port Ingliss to their new home some time during the next ten days.

At the Methodist church last Friday night there were one Baptist preacher, one Christian preacher and four Methodist preachers to hear Bishop A. Coke Smith, besides a number of ordinary mortals who were not preachers and all were disappointed. If the Bishop remains in Florida any length of time he will not mind an ordinary or even a big shower.

This office enjoyed a very pleasant call Saturday from Mr. D. M. Barco, who for a long time was the efficient registration officer for Marion county. He says that the Ocala Banner is growing more and more into popular favor in his neighborhood, so much so that the citizens out there say they must have a correspondent to make known the doings of the Cotton Plant neighborhood through its columns and arrangements to that end have been effected and we have added to our staff a Cotton Plant correspondent.

Rev. L. B. Warren, left Monday morning over the Seaboard for Macon, Ga., where he will spend a few days with his mother. He will then go to Atlanta, where he will consult Dr. Calhoun, the noted specialist about his eyes and if it is discovered that they are in such a condition that he will require a rest, he will be compelled to give up his charge in Ocala. The people of this community, without regard to denominations, are in hopes that this will not be necessary and his eyes will not be as bad as he apprehends. The loss of Mr. Warren would be felt by every one as a public calamity. He will return in several weeks and will then make known the decision of Dr. Calhoun.

The best physic. "Once tried and you will always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets" says William A. Girard, Pease, Vt. These Tablets are the most prompt, most pleasant and most reliable cathartic in use. For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store. in

Mrs. Peter Loose, living about two and half miles east of Ocala, in the storm last Monday had his dwelling as well as his fences blown away. He says that if it had not run against some oak and sweet gum trees he doesn't know where it would have landed. Suddenly, he says, that it grew very dark and became almost stilling and all the members of the family had great difficulty in breathing and thought that they were about to have a repetition of Mount Pelee. In a little while this stilling atmosphere was followed by the most terrific hail storm he ever witnessed. That some of the hail stones were as big as his fist and did great damage whenever they came in contact with buildings and live stock and that the vegetables also suffered.

A Sworn Statement.

This is to certify that on Monday, the 28 day of October, 1901, I purchased of The Racket Company, Ocala, Fla., a pair of their Tomahawk Brand penitentiary made shoes, and that I have worn them continuously ever since, and the upper and soles are still in good condition; and it is my belief that they are good for three months more wear. This is fourteen months wear that I have already received from these shoes, whose original cost was $1.45.
